TODAY'S RECIPES

CALIFORNIA
HONEY DEW
MELONS

CANTA-LOUPES

1. Cut melon in half from top to bottom. (A.)
2. Scoop out all of the seeds and stringy junk.
3. Turn it over and make cuts, slicing every half inch. (B.)

FRESH
GREEN
BROCCOLI

Make pretend that you're a giant lumberjack and you have to chop up some trees which, compared to you, are pretty small. Cut the trunk away from the branches and leaves. (A.) Break up the branches into size 1/2 inch pieces. Throw away trunk.

Rumors

The Hyper Ramp is now 12' wide!
Will Elmo's ramp be destroyed?
D'nelson has built a half pipe (12' wide)

WHAT'S HOT?... THE RIVERDALE DITCH!

The Riverdale ditch is located in a park field next to route 410. It was discovered by our ancestors almost ten years ago. It is a large ditch with lots of flat and hips for catching air. It is sessioned by the likes of Tony and Tedd Albano, Jeff, and many others. Although old, most modern tricks become reality. Here we catch Jeff's hefty boneless thing.

MULLIFLOWER

3,

Now you are a mad brain surgeon inventing a new kiddie cereal. You must cut the brain in half from the spinal cord to the top. (A.) Now extract the rest of the central nervous system and break up the brain tissue.

PINEAPPLE

- Cut the top and bottom off. (A.)
- Set on base and cut in fourths. (B.)
- Take each fourth and cut off core. (C.)
- Cut each fourth into slices. (D.)

REVIEWS

Braille Party: Welcome To Maryland- This has got to be the most musical album in my collection. It's like an experimental, bar-bar shop quartet approach. Like it.

Marginalia 'McDougle' Image- This album is alot different than 'identity'. I enjoy the singing and drums more this time.

Flipside Vol. 2- Brought to you by flipside mag., this compilation contains lots of material from our favorites like M.I.A., Decry, and Agent Orange.
